“ My sympathy to your family. I didn't know Cathy well but as I ran into her frequently I saw in her a fighting spirit. She would question life's circumstances but would rally it with hope. I began to see her joy returning the last times I saw her and a peace about her. She made me smile as she did many. She will be missed. Praying comfort for all of her family & friends.

“ We extend our sympathy to Cathy's family. We would occasionally see her at a restaurant with her mom and we'd stop to chat. She was a caring person.

“ My dear friend.....my fondest memories with you are,of course, Hampshire High School, 1973 & 1974! We had so much fun together and with all our friends! Being Pom Pom and Color Guard for our Whippurs.....we went our separate ways, raising kids and keeping our heads above water, occasionally reconnecting every 5 years at our class of '74 reunions. It was always so much fun listening to your stories which made us giggle and laugh because you could turn the worst of circumstances into a humorous occasion!

Then, out of the blue, one Friday night after having surgery, who shows up when I needed her the most, my old friend Cathy! We talked for a couple hours, as if we had never been apart! Thats what friendship is.....she was a true friend to everyone she knew. Cathy did not beat around the bush, you always knew her true feelings and exactly how she felt about you. But she also would do anything for you if she could. The world has lost an amazing woman and the angels will be forever entertained in heaven now that Cathy is there! maybe our world will get happier and kinder because God has Cathy helping him! IM so glad I had my resent time with her because I will remember it forever and look forward to our great time when we meet again. God Bless you ,Cath, and your dear kids and grandkids and I pray they can keep your memories alive in their hearts.....I know I will.

“ Cathy was such an outgoing, outspoken and funny cousin. She could talk your leg off and be humorous in the process. A great spirited story teller like her Dad. I will miss her chats. Rest now, dear cousin. Love, Linda Dolder
