John devoted his life to those in grief and honoring the departed. He was a kind, caring, hardworking and generous man who answered the call no matter the hour. He was devoted to his wife, children, grandchildren and siblings. "Digger" was a one of a kind person who will be missed by everyone who had the chance to shake his hand.

“ John was a wonderful man. My parents especially thought the world of him. They paid for funerals in advance and when John left Marengo, they moved it with him, then again. They always told me, make sure John is in charge of our funerals....well he was too sick for moms in July but Erika his daughter-in-law did a wonderful job. He has been loved and looked up to by a lot of people....sympathies to the Freund family. He will be missed greatly!

“ When my mother-in-law and father-in-law passed away our family could not have been better served. John's friendly, compassionate care was so appreciated! As a fellow funeral director I enjoyed the opportunity to get to meet John and visit with him on those occasions. John served our profession with great dignity and was a shining example of how funeral directors should conduct their business and serve their families and communities!

“ I feel so blessed to have known John as a very true and loyal friend. He was always so kind. I'll never forget his compassion in coming out to the house after Dan died. It couldn't have been easy for him but he made such a difference in the ordeal I was facing as a numb widow. When I was serving for a funeral with Ladies Aid at St. John's it was always good to see John, knowing everything was managed perfectly. It was an honor to have known you and to call you my friend. Rest in peace thou faithful and loving servant.

“ My deepest sympathies to John's whole family. His kindness & caring have helped many Marengo (& surrounding area) families, including my own, through some of the darkest days of their lives. Even when I was a kid at school or in 4-H with his kids, his kindness set him apart from other parents. May you all find comfort in your great memories with him & in the knowledge that he has touched & was loved by many.
