

Alice Marie Gehringer

July 15, 1938 - May 8, 2025

Born: July 15th 1938 in Cicero, Illinois

Transitioned: May 8th, 2025, Cherry Valley, Illinois

A love story of 68 years between a farmer boy and a city girl has come to a sunset parting. Alice transitioned peacefully in her home with her true love by her side. Fritz, an Illinois man met Alice, an Indiana woman through both of their life-long best friends Skip and Donna Schultz. Both couples married a week apart from each other in October 1956.

They began their married life together in Hampshire, Illinois. Alice is survived by loving husband Fritz and their 6 children, Steve, Susie (Wesley) Chapman, Greg (Beth), Daniel, Kurt (Bonnie), Matt (Julie), and daughters-in-law Brenda Ross and Sheri Stadie. She is also survived by 12 grandchildren and 10 great grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her unborn 6-month-old baby, her parents, Hershall and Bernice Borton,, and her four sisters, Rita (Jack) Pfeiffer, Carol (Bud) Stuckey, Margaret (Ray) Weberpal, and Catherine (George) Doyle.

Alice a devoted Catholic, worked at the Care Net Pregnancy Center of Green County, helping young women experiencing the challenges of pregnancy. She also volunteered her time as a confirmation assistant for St. Victor's Church helping young Catholic's preparing for the sacrament.

The family invites you to a celebration of her life from 5 pm to 8 pm on Sunday May 18th, 2025 at Fredrick Funeral Home, 284 Park Street in Hampshire. A sharing of treasured memories and closing with the Rosary will start at 7 pm.

Church Services will be held at St. Charles Borromeo Parish, 297 E. Jefferson Ave. in Hampshire at 11:00 am on Monday, May 19th. Final resting place will be a St. Charles Borromeo Catholic Cemetery, 1330 Getzelman Road. A reception will follow immediately back at St. Charles Borromeo Parish.
