

Arleen Marie Struck

May 9, 2018

Cape Coral, FL – Arleen Marie Struck, 73, died Wednesday, May 9th at the Hope Hospice in Cape Coral Florida after battling cancer for over a year. She leaves her two sons, Jeffery Struck and Timothy Struck; four grandchildren, Jeffrey Tyler, Christopher, Nicholas and Jacob; and many close friends.

Born at St. Joseph Hospital in Elgin, Illinois and raised in Hampshire, Illinois, the daughter of Walter and Clara Koerner she lived in Illinois and later Florida. She was a housewife, construction superintendent, airline reservationist for Continental Airlines and most recently an employee of Publix Supermarkets. She enjoyed golfing when she had the chance and spending time at the beach reading the newspaper under her Coolcabana.

A graveside service will be held at the Hampshire Center Cemetery on Thursday, June 28th at 10:30 am. She will be buried alongside her father, mother and two sisters. A luncheon will be held after the service at the Red Ox in Hampshire at 11:30 am.

Cemetery Details

Hampshire Center Cemetery

17N002 Harmony Rd
Hampshire, IL 60140

Tribute Wall

“ Basket of Memories was purchased for the family of Arleen Marie Struck.

June 25, 2018 at 11:14 AM