

Betty J. Roush

May 8, 1924 - May 12, 2022

Betty J. Roush, 98, of Hampshire, was called to her Savior Jesus on May 12, 2022.

Betty was born May 8, 1924, at the family home in Starks Station to Joseph and Alma (Cranford) Johnson. She graduated from Hampshire High School in 1942. Betty met and married the man that would put music in her life, Chester Roush. They married December 7, 1944. She was a kind and loving farmer's wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She loved golf, gardening, bowling, and playing cards with family and friends. Betty was a member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church of North Plato where she was involved in the Ladies Aid along with many other organizations and activities.

She is survived by her four children, Dennis (Victoria), Linda Logan, Gary (Janet), and Lori Roush; 8 grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren.

She is preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Chester on August 18, 1986; brothers, Robert, and Richard "Dusty" Johnson; a brother in infancy; and a son-in-law, Peter Logan.

Funeral Service will be held at 2 PM on Sunday, May 22 at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, 43W301 Plank Road, North Plato. Burial will follow in the North Plato Cemetery.

Visitation is prior to services from 12 Noon to 1:45 PM at the church on Sunday.

Memorials may be made to the North Plato Little Saints Preschool, North Plato Ladies Aid, St. Peter's Lutheran Church, or charity of your choice.
