“ To have a wonderful Father in Law, is to have Don be that man. He was a Very special person who was very close to my heart. He had so much inspiration and wisdom that he shared so freely. A man of God who never wavered. He will always be my FIL and forever loved. Don, may you rest peacefully in the arms of our Lord.

“ Don was always very kind to me, and I greatly appreciated his gifts of various rhubarb jams and spreads from his garden. Always a pleasure to run into him at various church and diocesan events, even if only for a quick hello. Amanda Hudson

“ I have very early memories of Don and his family coming to our farm in Wisconsin many summers for relaxation in the woods, swimming, camping, bonfires and games. I remember the many years of his Boy Scout leadership and popcorn sales, various cruises (in fact I learned from Don that one could order multiple dinners, deserts, etc. ;) as long as we cleaned our plates), and visits to Phoenix & Palm Desert. I'm thankful he can finally go to his eternal rest with his beloved wife Rita and many others who have preceded him in Christ.
