“ We were so very saddened to learn of Eddie’s passing. Our hearts go out to Tracy. May loving memories of the times they spent together bring solace to Tracy in the days to follow. Ed had such a great sense of humor. In the early years, Ed painted this enormous Snoopy character on the garage door of their home in Villa Park so visitors could always find their way. Also, I remember the beautiful garden Ed and Rosemarie cultivated at their home in Hampshire. They grew the biggest spaghetti zucchini I had ever seen. Most of all, I will always remember Ed for his funny stories, smiling face, and big kind heart.
