“ It was my true honor to be the nurse taking care of Eileen on January 16th. I know I was only part of her life for a short time but seeing (and feeling) the love between her and her family will stay with me for as long as I live. That night I went home, climbed in bed with my 3 year old daughter (also named Eileen), and sent up lots of prayers and peace for her and her family. Hugs to you all.

“ Eileen was the kindest, sweetest person you could ever meet. From my earliest memories her home was always pristine and immaculate. Absolutely beautifully decorated. She could bake and cook like no other. Everything she made was always delicious. She had boundless energy. I don't know where it came from! Eileen was in her later seventies or early eighties, and my mom had just got off the phone with her from catching up a bit and told me that Eileen has been repainting her house and has been up on a ladder most of the day. I just laughed and said "She is something else!". She was my mom's best friend. They are both in Heaven together now. Our entire family always has and will always Love Eileen deeply. Remembering her smile and soft laugh right now...
