“ Elmira was one of the sweetest ladies I've ever met. I loved hearing stories of when she was younger, I could talk to her for hours. She will be very missed by everyone.

“ I so enjoyed having Myra on the bus to the many events with the township. One of the many stories she would share was “Queen for a Day” how she was on a game show and won a washer and dryer! She still shared her enthusiasm of winning many years later. I will miss my friend Myra God bless your soul. 🙏

I had the Great Pleasure of meeting Myra while driving our Seniors to Events . The first day We met , we discovered how we grew up near each other in Chicago and that we were actually at Riverview Park and the Roller Rink at the same time, on many occasions . Myra was an absolute delight to be around, I Loved to hear all her wonderful stories, and she Absolutely lit up every time she talked about her children, we found that we had a lot in common. I will miss her dearly ! God Bless you my dear Friend. Thanks for some Great walks down Memory Lane! Barbara

This is an amusing story of an an amazing lady. My daughter worked at Sue's Beauty Shop where Myra got her hair done. When her son (our grandson) made his 1st Communion,Myra gave him a card. His Mother encouraged him to write her a Thank you note for her kindness. But this 2nd grader said" It was just a card" and his Mother said " you can still thank her" So he wrote " Dear Mrs. Hicks, Thanks for nothing " my daughter handed this card to Myra without reading it first. Myra burst into laughter until tears were running down her cheeks. You see this was a very low time for Myra because it was soon after Jim had died and she was very sad. My daughter was mortified, but Myra was elated. She said" I needed that!" It was a story she and I shared many times over. Rest in peace Myra, you were one of a kind and beloved by many ! Judy
