“ Aunt Helen was always such a special and interesting lady. She had fun stories about her childhood and growing up in the Danesi clan of 5 brothers and 2 step brothers. She was always aware of what was going on with them and would tell us how they lovingly taunted her while looking after their sister. As time went on, the brothers passed but aunt Helen still remembered lots of family history. She loved her children and was so proud of each of them, equally of her grandchildren and great grandchildren. She could tell you every achievement each one had.

My special memories include the night of the Our Lady of the Angels school fire in 1958 when Uncle Bieze (as we called him) and aunt Helen drove from Des Plaines to make sure my sister Susan and I were safe after learning that the school fire took numerous little lives that terrible afternoon. I'll never forget that concern they had for us...never.

Other memories include visits at Ron and Joyce's farm, family reunions and being silly with the crazy games we played, for keeping up with being glamorous, and so much more. Aunt Helen, you'll be missed. Guess God needed another angel so he picked YOU!!!!

I too enjoyed Aunt Helens stories of the past. She would tell me that my father Joe Tarnow looked so handsome in his US Navy uniform and that he would always bring her presents. I enjoyed my visit with her many years ago and continued to call her to chat and hear about my cousins and their children she was so proud. I already miss her and I know everyone else does too, especially Molly!!

I loved staying with Aunt Helen out at the farm. Those were the happiest days of my childhood. I remember her hair and makeup were always done. And her beautiful blue eyes. She was a beautiful lady and will be missed.
