“ My deepest condolences to all of you. The first time I walked in to Stitching on State I was welcomed by Jann as though I was coming home. Jann's beautiful smile and kind heart touched me and from that moment forward we had a special connection - as tho we had known each other for years. Many of the conversations we had while she helped me pick out fabrics for whatever project I had decided to work on, were fun stories we shared about our grandchildren. Jann touched my life and will be in my heart forever. May she rest in peace.
