It hurts our hearts as we say a final goodbye to my brother-in-law John. I've known John since the sixties, when I would come to babysit the kids; Jay, Susie and Debbie. John always had a smile for me, a terrific guy that made me feel special always. He was a hard worker and a good example in raising his children. When I married into the family I was happy to know that he carried his family name with pride and integrity. I treasure all the times Jerry and I could connect with John and Bonnie either at our home in Florida, or when we would come back to the area in Hampshire, or one of his favorite places; the cabin in Tennessee. There was a place he was especially fond of near the cabin called the Artistic Bean Coffee Shoppe. He plopped himself down on that high top stool and you just knew we weren't leaving anytime soon. We will keep this memory and so many more in our minds and hearts forever. Rest in Peace dear John. Love, Pam

The first time I met John was when his nephew and I started dating. Jeff had nothing but wonderful memories he shared with you growing up. It was shortly after we started dating I was introduced to such an amazing person. I loved John from the first time I met him. He had one of those old jukebox's that played records. His favorite song was Running Bear and I remember dancing with him to it. From that point on, I knew I loved his humor and smile. Jeff and I will miss you tons. Rest in peace Chubby. We love you. ❤️😭
