

John R. Meador

February 16, 1949 - October 12, 2022

John Meador died peacefully at home on October 12th, 2022, after a year long battle with esophageal cancer.

John was born February 16th, 1949, in Sayre, Oklahoma, the son of JL and Alta (Enyart) Meador. They moved to Detroit a few years later, then to Chicago, and eventually settled in Des Plaines. He met his true love Laura Greenaway while attending Maine West High School; they got married, had two children Matthew and Katie, and 52 years later, here we are.

He was a lot of things during his life. Here is an incomplete list:

Machinist, horse trainer, Olympic figure skater, farmer, pheasant hunter, crab fisherman, cowboy, marksman, fencer, falconer, professional football player, gambler, business owner, gymnast, underwear model, snow plower, hay baler, long haul trucker, short order cook, Civil War field surgeon, boxer, honey badger, loving father/son/husband/brother/grandfather/uncle/mentor/friend, and notorious liar. He was a good man with the kindest heart and will be missed.

He is survived by his wife, Laura; brothers, William, and Robert; sister, Darla; son, Matt and his wife Anita; daughter, Katie; grandchildren, Orly, and Elias; and many nieces and nephews.

There will be a small family service at a later date.

In lieu of flowers and in remembrance of John, please do something you enjoy - donate time/money to charity, eat a rack of ribs, play a round of golf, drink a beer, smoke a joint, buy a tractor, bet on a longshot, take your kids to the zoo, go see a movie. Whatever makes you happy.

“ Jonh Kersting and Ronnie Pancoast;
After 25 years buying animal feed from J&R Feeds, doing odd jobs at the Meader homestead, working post retirement at the feed store and buying wagonloads of great hay from Meaders - We can only reflect on the influence John had on our lives. I always enjoyed swapping humorous anecdotes with John - we appreciated each other's humor even if our significant others did not.
John your influence on us will be long lasting.
