So many memories of Joyce from the early days when she was dating my brother Adam to her loving fulfillment of life as wife, mother, and grandmother. She welcomed all with kindness and warmth, and I believe that the Lord reserved a very special spot for her in heaven.

What I remember best about Joyce is her smile and her genuine love for her family - it just shone from her smiling face and made her eyes sparkle. She was always kind and thoughtful. I was blessed to have known her.
