“ Judy was a wonderful, kind, loving friend. Spent many memorable times with her raising our children. sharing in the car pooling to baseball games, swimming lessons, and all the duties of Sunday School, Vacation Bible School, and Church Christmas Programs. Helping out each other as neighbors do. Always loved hearing her play piano! Love you dear friend. Heaven got an angel today. God bless you Judy. Love Willie and Doug Kanies

We did not know Judy, but we know the quality and generosity of Klein's. Every Friday we pick up donated produce to help feed the hungry in Elgin. It is always given with a cheerful smile and blessing for those who will be helped. Our condolences to the Klein family. May you find comfort with each other and encouragement in remembering her presence in your lives. - The Shivelys and the Highland Avenue Church of the Brethren
