

Lucas C. Haberstich

March 3, 1980 - February 16, 2020

Lucas C. Haberstich, 39, of Albuquerque, NM formerly of Hampshire and Gladstone, Mich. passed away unexpectedly from natural causes as a result of hereditary condition called Alpha-1 antitrypsin deficiency on Sunday, February 16, 2020, in his home in Albuquerque. He was born March 3, 1980 in Escanaba, MI the son of Eric Haberstich and Patricia (Patti) Schmitendorf.

Lucas grew up in Gladstone, MI and was a 2002 graduate of Carthage College in Kenosha, WI. He had lived in Chicago for a couple of years then in Tucson, AZ with friends. He moved back to Hampshire with his mom and then Rapid River, MI with his dad. He had only moved to Albuquerque in Dec. of 2019 before his sudden passing.

Lucas was an avid comic book reader, collector, and developer. He performed in Improv Theater and loved to make people laugh. He also was a gifted singer, and shared his voice onstage.

Surviving is his mother, Patti Schmitendorf; siblings, Rachel (Andrew) Benson, Gwen (Jason) Christianson, and Adam (Corinne) Haberstich; nieces and nephews, Zachary, Gabriel, Aurora, Geneva, Simeon, Ezekiel, Aiden, Paige, Oliver, and Ava; many cousins, extended family and lifelong friends.

He is preceded in death by his dad in 2017.

Memorial Services will be held at 11 AM, Friday, March 6, at Shepherd of the Prairie Lutheran Church, 10805 E. Main St., Huntley.

Memorial visitation will be on Thursday, March 5 from 4 to 7 Pm at the Fredrick Funeral Home, 284 Park St., Hampshire.

Private burial will be held in the Hampshire Center Cemetery at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in Lucas's name may be directed to the Alpha-1 Foundation at www.alpha1.org

“ So many of my favorite memories of college involve time spent with Lucas. His rendition of "I Will Always Love You" at improv had me in stitches and is a story even my kids know. He was a great friend and I enjoyed just hanging and talking with him. I wish I was able to come down for the Memorial, but no matter what you are in my heart Lucas. I miss you.
