“ To Marlee, Patty, Marlo Jr., and your families: Aunt Lydia was a favorite Aunt that will be greatly missed. We loved visiting with her. She was always good to us, and she enjoyed us visiting with her. Aunt was a super good cook. When our dad was too strict with us, Aunt would defend us and say that we were good kids. Her beautiful memories will be treasured with us forever. We send our sincere condolences. You all are in our prayers. From Henry M. Arocha, Bernadette M. Arocha, & family.

“ To the family of Aunt Lydia, we are all going to miss her very much. She was such a wonderful person and a super aunt. We always enjoyed her smile and her joking around. She was a wonderful cook. Every time we came to visit, she made sure we had gotten something to eat. She did have a nice personality and a good outlook on life. We will remember all the good memories of her always. We certainly enjoyed visiting with her. Now she is with the Lord so we know she is in good hands.
