

Nancy J. Allen

February 23, 1937 - April 19, 2026

Nancy J. Allen, 89, of Hampshire, passed away peacefully on Sunday April 19, 2026, at Florence Nursing Home in Marengo, IL. She was born February 23rd, 1937 the daughter of Carl and Florence (Schultz) Allison. She married Maurice B. "Mose" Allen, February 13th, 1970 in Sycamore IL., combining their two families totaling 11 children and adding one more to live her dream of being a farmer's wife with twelve children. Mose passed away on May 8th, 1995.

Nancy was a member of Country Covenant Evangelical Church for over 50 years. She had a heart for music and taught herself guitar so she could worship her Lord. Nancy loved working with kids and sharing her love of Jesus to everyone, especially children, through her talents of singing, playing guitar and puppet shows, to name a few. After she and Mose sold the dairy, Nancy worked at the Spee-D Mart and Peterson Propane for over 30 years. Nancy was a fixture at the Speed-D Mart, greeting all those that passed through in the early morning hours. She managed to keep the retired farmers, and a few others, in line who came in every morning for coffee and a chat, Nancy enjoyed sewing, and painting as well as other crafts. However, she especially enjoyed cooking and baking and sharing with those that she loved including her famous Peanut Brittle and Cinnamon Rolls which all looked forward to. Nancy was known for her bright smile and kind and generous heart, yet never afraid to give a little sass if she thought it was needed. She loved visitors and enjoyed showing them all of her treasures which included a tour of her basement where she housed a lifetime of precious memories and toys to entertain the kids. Nancy loved Jesus and her prayers were that everyone found him as well.

“ Our sympathy to you the family of Nancy. We had many fun years at Country Evangelical Covenant Church working together, singing in the choir together, and fellowshiping. We know the church was her favorite place to be. And we also loved the peanut brittle that she sent to us for several years after we moved to Texas. A very special lady.

Nancy was such a positive person & always smiling. I loved having her daughter, Abbey, at Hampshire Elementary. Nancy was always in hearing what was going on with you rather than talking about herself. So many who loved her have lost a wonderful lady. Blessings to the family. Peg VanMeter
