“ Craig was always a kind and warm hearted soul. He was always welcoming and made you feel at home. He always greeted you with a "how are doing" and a hug. You could feel the pride and love when he talked about his family. He was very proud of his children and grandchildren and liked to talk about all of them. His laugh was contagious and he enjoyed watching the "boys" light off their fireworks for the 4th of July even if he was behind the grill. He was easy to talk to and welcomed the conversations. He will be greatly missed.
