“ Peter (Jr.) as my cousin. He was known to us as "Bucky"/ His brothers Nicky and Frankie and sister Bernadette were children of my Aunt Lucy and Uncle Peter (Sr.). Aunt Lucy was my mother's sister. There were uncountable times our families got together. In those days, our families met for good food and good conversation. I have so many memories of those times. We were all so happy when Buck married Carmella, who I considered one of the most beautiful woman in the world. My older brother Tony stood up to his wedding. I am heart broken at the passing of both Bucky and Carmella. I know we shall all meet again in a better place in the company of God.
