“ I have fond memories as a boy growing up in Burlington in the 50’s and participating in the many activities provided by the Boys Club. This was possible only with dedicated adult volunteers. Ray was of those special people who donated his time and talent for the good of his town, and made our lives more fun. Thanks again, Ray. I’m sure the Lord has told you; “Well done, faithful servant”. God Bless. Rest In Peace. Randall Rakowski

“ Your mother babysat my son, Brandon, for a short time just before she retired. When I would pick him up in the evening your father would have a special treat from his garden for my son. Since I wouldn't let a 2-year old eat a tomato in my car, we would sit in the kitchen visiting with Mr. Brammer. He was a very kind and friendly man. My condolences to you and your families.
