“ He was Uncle Dick to me and my family. We loved coming out for visits, usually the holidays. We miss them all! Love you cousin Rick, hang in there.

“ Dickie was my favorite cousin! I remember when I was 10 or 11years old, Dickie would come for a visit. He would fly over and buzz our house in Palo Alto. We knew a call was coming and it wasn't too long after we would get a call from Moffett Field. We would be so excited. When we picked him up, he always looked so handsome in his uniform smoking his pipe. I had such a crush. I knew this day was coming, but I am so sad. Our family has gotten so small. Thank you Rick for being there for your dad. God bless you. Dickie is now with your mom and Scott. May that give you peace.

Friend Scot at SIU. Learned a lot from him while having fun. Mr. Perry was a role model. Miss you both.
