

Stephanie Kam Johnson

September 9, 1963 - May 26, 2019

Stephanie Kam Johnson, 55, of Hampshire passed away Sunday morning, May 26, 2019, in her home.

She was born Sept. 9, 1963, in St. Paul, MN. Stephanie and her husband and partner, Lewis Logue have been together for over 30 years and moved to Hampshire 22 years ago. They married Feb. 2, 2016 in Geneva.

Stephanie was a U.S. government employee working for Customs and Border Patrol since 1987.

Surviving are her husband and partner, Lewis A. Logue; parents, Marilyn (Alan) Johnson; brother, Nathan (Katie) Johnson; a nephew, Oscar; and a niece, Winsley; and many other extended family and good friends.

Private services have been held for the family.

To remember Stephanie, and in lieu of flowers or memorial contributions, the family requests that you be kind to one another and do a random act of kindness.

Tribute Wall

PW

“ Pamela Williamson lit a candle in memory of Stephanie Kam Johnson

Pamela Williamson - February 25, 2021 at 08:31 AM

PW

“ Stephanie, I can't believe you're gone too soon. I always admired your intelligence and wittiness. You held a special place in my heart. I will miss sending cards and letters back and forth with you. You are loved and will be dearly missed. Pam

Pamela Williamson - February 25, 2021 at 08:27 AM